A Long Absent Father Returns.

Acworth, Ga., Oct. 21.-Thirtythree years ago when the California gold fever was at its hight, there lived in this country a young man named Wilson, who had a pretty wife and child. A quarrel between the couple caused the husband to go to California. A few years later it was announced that he was dead, and the widow remarried. Last week there arrived in this city a gentleman about lifty-five years of age, evidently a man of means, who began inquiry about the old families. It was the long-absent husband, who had been appointed Commissioner for California at the New Orleans are called a property of the subcribers under the publication of the subcribers under the property of the subcribers under and section 2.321.

A Norther.

An old Texan being asked by a stranger to describe a norther said: "I'll tell you what it is stranger, a that goes at it right can have a good norther puts in the quickest work of any thing you ever saw. You see that lake down there (pointing to a beautiful lake about a mile distant). Last spring in the latter part of March, I was fishing in the afternoon; the sun was shining and it was as warm almost as the middle of summer. The fish were jumping all over the lake and they were biting splendidly. A shade came over the lake, and I thought I smelt a strange smell that often preceeds a norther. I immediately turned away from the lake and looked towards the northwest and I saw a small dark cloud passing like lighting, and I knew I must hurry home. After looking a short time at the cloud I turned and looked at the lake, when, to my astonishment, the deal of fun with your father, but any thing you ever saw.
